I have 9 years of experience building both commercial and product-based applications. I have grown to understand and evolve around the entire life-cycle of web-based applications such as architecting, coding, management, and deployments.  Those cumulative experiences are also backed by the AWS DevOps professional certification and the AWS Developer Associate certification. I have extensive knowledge of Javascript / Typescript and I work with Node, Express, React, Redux, Jest, and AWS regularly- just to mention a few. I have 4 years of experience working remotely across Canada, Australia, and Mauritius, at different times.
